The following case was presented by the American and the International media as the first live internet plastic surgery on the internet:

A 42 year old patient who attempted to commit suicide several times due to disharmony between his morphology and his body image asked me to help him. His surgery was very expensive and was done by few plastic surgeons around the world. After several months of coordination we organized the website and asked the international community to help him. People around the world paid through a website, organized by Dr. Sahafi, named "Amazing surgeries.com" to help the patient. The surgery was performed live on the internet and Dr. Sahafi was interviewed on the following Medias: CNN, Discovery Channel, Fox 11 News, CBS Channel 2, KTLA Channel 5, KCAL Channel 9, EXTRA TV show Live Q&A at the KLSX national talk radio with Dr. Sahafi and patient, "KT" Live talk radio interview with 640 a.m. and KFWB radio in Los Angeles, www.eyada.com internet radio Los Angeles Times Newspaper, Orange County Weekly Newspaper, "Breaking the Stereotypes", One hour TV show on "Homa TV", USA.
